Severity	Critical (the text overlays the important button)
Priority	High (the button "Continue" is not clickable and the customer can't use it)
Reporter	Nataliia Taranina
Summary	The text is overlapping the "Continue" button
Reproducibility	Always
Steps to reproduce:	1. Open the website 2. Order a trip 3. Proceed to checkout
Actual result:	The text is overlapping the "Continue" button
Expected result:	The text is below the "Continue" button
